PLAYING FAVORITES

We open the season in spectacular fashion! Featuring many favorites...it was hard to choose just a few!! Audience favorite, pianist Drew Petersen, returns to perform Ravel's delightful, entertaining piano concerto.

- Tchaikovsky Romeo & Juliet
- Ravel Piano Concerto in G
- Verdi Overture to *La Forza del Destino
- Debussy Prelude to the Afternoon of a Faun
- Rimsky-Korsakov Capriccio Espagnol

HEROISM & HOPE

Brahms' glorious Third Symphony is a hidden gem, an odd mix of heroism, formal rigor, and emotional depth that sets it apart. Writing in the picturesque town of Wiesbaden on the Rhine River, Brahms incorporated his personal motto, "Frei aber froh" (Free but happy) throughout the piece. Written as Stalin's Great Terror campaign made music a matter of life and death for Soviet composers, Shostakovich's Fifth Symphony is a searing search for hope in a time of darkness and oppression.

- Shostakovich Festive Overture
- Brahms Symphony No. 3
- Shostakovich Symphony No. 5

DAVID'S FINALE

Full of passion, lyricism, and technical bravura, this concerto became Tchaikovsky's first work to achieve widespread acclaim this side of the Atlantic. This inspirational program also features Rachmaninov's Second Symphony, a masterwork recognized for its gorgeous melodies and triumphant conclusion. You may hear the pop of a cork as the concert opens!

- Lumbye Champagne Galop
- Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto No. 1
- Rachmaninov Symphony No. 2

All concerts take place at Tilson Auditorium on ISU's campus. Event dates, times, artists, and venues subject to change.

ONE LOW PRICE FOR ALL 5 CONCERTS!
